President's Report

The big event on the Samoyed Club's calendar for 2004 has come and gone and plans are already well advanced for the Club's 2005 Championship Show Queen's Birthday weekend at the NZKC. I was very pleased with how the show went this year. All the hard work put in by the Committee in the preparation and then the helpers on the day made the show most successful and enjoyable. Thank you Committee, Noel Evans, Lynette Smith, Lauren V de C James, Kay and Steve Hamer and Anita Fraser. Having people who come in and run the show on the day is very much appreciated by the Committee who can just show their dogs. Thanks also to all those folk who entered, sponsored the show, added to the enjoyment on the day and were thoughtful enough to say thanks to the Committee. The Judge said he really enjoyed his day.

Each year the Committee tries to improve on the year before. This year the "Of-Year" awards were handed out by our Patron after the show and this worked well with nearly everyone staying to congratulate those who had done well with their Samoyeds in 2003. Your Committee is always keen to hear any ideas exhibitors may have on improvements so please let us know your suggestions. One suggestion already made is to hold the show either Saturday or Sunday evening rather than Monday morning so feedback to the Committee on this would be appreciated.

The Club is very lucky to have Iris take photos for us at our shows. Samoyeds are very difficult to photograph and I think Iris does a great job of providing each of us with a memento of our dogs on the day. Thanks Iris. You will receive a copy of the photos taken of your dogs at the show shortly. A donation to the Club for these photos would be very much appreciated. Extra copies can be ordered from me. The judge will also be sent a complimentary set of the photos taken.

The Otaki walk went ahead but once again the weather was not that great and attendance rather poor. We have also been having trouble with holding the Hawke's Bay ribbon parade. First there was the terrible weather and then the judge was sick. Hopefully we will be able to have the ribbon parade at the next Hawkes Bay shows and the Hutt Walk to be held later in the year will coincide with some nice weather. We can but hope!!!

The sled season is now in full swing. It would be nice to see some of the results that Samoyeds are achieving at the various races acknowledged so how about letting Anita A know if you have done something worth congratulating. As far as I know only Andy Jameson and Denise and Andy Reeve are seriously racing. Some photos of the dogs racing would also be great.

There are a lot of puppies around at the moment. I am sure every care will be taken finding suitable homes for these puppies and hopefully a few will make it into show homes and add to the dwindling number of show exhibitors. It is sad to learn that more and more Samoyed puppies are being sold in pet shops where the only criteria for the new home is that you pay the dollars and the pup is yours. Samoyeds are a special breed of dog and need special homes where they are cared for and loved right into old age.

Until next time,

"I was very pleased with how the show went this year"

Secretary's Report

I would like to start off by thanking everyone involved with our Championship show, from the committee, members, sponsors right down to those people who offered to help handout prizes etc. I felt the show went off well, ran like clockwork and I have personally had favourable comments from exhibitors that entered. My sons Martial Arts club provided a sausage sizzle which was very welcome. I am pleased to report the children made a small profit to put towards their trip to Australia, so thank you for supporting them.

Just one request, those exhibitors that won or use Science Diet products, you could please keep the barcodes and/or forward them on to Anita Shugg. Science Diet require barcodes when sponsoring shows and it makes our job a little bit easier if all members do their part.

Next big event on the Agenda is our Open Show to be held in conjunction with Taupo Kennel Association in November. Just a reminder that de-sexed dogs are allowed to enter Breed Classes at Open Shows.

We will also be having another Sammie Walk later in the year. The date is still to be confirmed but we would like to have one in maybe August or September when the weather gets a bit warmer. If anyone would like to organise a walk in their area, please feel free to contact a committee member. It is always a matter of "have Sam's and will travel".

Until next time, keep warm

Anita A

"If anyone would like to organise a walk in their area, please feel free to contact a committee member."

Treasurer's Report

The Club continues to operate successfully and the membership has increased by 4 to a total of 51.

The Championship show cost approximately $1,500 to run. Thanks to good attendance and generous sponsorship the show nearly broke even. The shortfall was approximately $50. This shortfall has been met by the club's fundraising efforts.

Cadbury chocolate bars for sale at $2 each or $40 per box (20 bars) continue to prove popular. If you would like to help with selling a box or would like to buy a few bars or a box please contact Simonne MacMillan

The Club has several Samoyed Badges for sale. The badges are 30mm by 30mm in size and have a clasp on the back. They are $7 each.

The Club also has an assortment of Samoyed themed greeting cards for sale. Inside the cards have a Christmas greeting or are blank.

They are $7 for 10 or $1 each

Show Day

The Samoyed Club Championship Show is the largest and most prestigious event run by our club each year and much planning is undertaken for this day to happen. This special day quickly came around this year.

The building was unlocked at some early hour for the committee to get organised, oh what fun! Dragging tables here, dragging tables there, unloading boxes, boxes and more boxes, then more and more bags of dog food. Unpacking all the boxes and eventually all the trophy tables organised. Then more and more exhibitors arrived and more and more crates and more and more dogs and more and more barks!! Then it was groom, groom, groom!! Then our help arrived from various people and our stewards and Simeon our show manager arrived with the most required person of all, our judge Mr Robert Willis.

The show started at 9am and just for an extra we were blessed with good Wellington weather, i.e. it was lovely and dry which is always a bonus when toileting our beloved breed when they are in their beautiful pristine white jackets for showing. So, they managed to stay clean and dry, how wonderful.

First all the male dog classes were judged, then a short break occurred. This is great time to partake in the necessary toileting of one's dogs and sometimes, of course, the handlers, unless one wants to run around the ring cross legged! Then all the bitch classes were judged. Eventually, culminating in the best in show awards, results of which can be found elsewhere in this magazine! Then it was another short break and then into the stakes classes, where dogs and owners always seem to be much more relaxed. Much fun was had by all, dogs and owners alike, especially the junior handlers which was the last class of all. Well done to you all and keep up the good work. During all this raffle tickets were being sold to help raise funds for our club. Coffee and tea was aplenty and also this year we had a sausage sizzle which kept the worms at bay! Many thanks to Anita Andrew's son's karate club for making this happen. Once the worms were fed everyone gathered together to celebrate all the "of year awards" for 2003. A friendly affair indeed and most enjoyable. Then the big exodus occurs where everyone madly packs everything up, always in a less organised fashion than it was brought in and exhibitors all say their goodbyes. Congratulations to all our winners of this years show, commiserations to the ones that missed out, tell your dogs their turn will come! Also, well done to all the of year award winners and also to the raffle winner.

Many thanks to all who made this day a success, whether you entered your dog/dogs, drove your wife here on your day off so that she could help, swept the floors after, sold the raffle tickets, took the photos, just came and watched etc, we thank you all and hope you will all be back next year! Special thanks of course to all our officials and most of all to the judge Mr Robert Willis. We hope you enjoyed your day as much as we all did.

Vaccinations

Parvovirus, Distemper, Hepatitis, Leptospirosis and Infectious Bronchitis (Kennel Cough) are the major infectious diseases of dogs that can cause death and suffering. Fortunately a simple vaccination programme can help prevent these diseases. Vaccines are given at:

- * 6 weeks old (optional)
- * 8-9 weeks old
- * 12-14 weeks old

After these initial vaccinations, we need to booster our dogs immunity at one year of age and then every three years for continuing protection. Because of the risk of disease it is important to keep puppies away from public areas such as parks, beaches and foot-paths until they are fully protected by their vaccinations (7 days after their course). At the same time it is important that puppies do mix with other dogs at a young age. This provides them with important social skills, which are hard to learn after 16 weeks old.

This contradiction leads us to recommend that your puppy is encouraged to mix with other dogs, that are vaccinated, in a 'safe zone' (e.g. your garden).

“Because of the risk of disease it is important to keep puppies away from public”

Canine Parvovirus

A highly contagious disease, causing sudden and severe vomiting and diarrhoea. This is most severe in young dogs and can be fatal. Canine Distemper Highly contagious. Symptoms include loss of appetite, runny eyes and nose, vomiting, coughing and/or nervous signs. Treatment is often unsuccessful. Survivors may have permanent nervous damage e.g. seizures or damage to the enamel of their teeth. This can also affect ferrets.

Canine Leptospirosis

A severe liver and kidney disease. Fatal in over 50% of cases. Symptoms include high fever, jaundice, vomiting and sore muscles. Dogs that contract this disease are usually found in areas where rats are infected. Humans can catch Leptospirosis from infected dogs or other species. Dogs that come into areas where rats frequent e.g. around fresh waterways, rubbish dumps or visit farms are at greatest risk. There is mounting evidence that this vaccine may cause autoimmune problems with an estimated risk of 1:10,000.

Infectious Bronchitis (Kennel Cough)

A complex, highly contagious disease which is seldom fatal. Although a dog may be vaccinated it may still be possible for it to suffer with mild symptoms. It can be treated with prolonged antibiotic therapy, but this is expensive and not always effective. The infection is passed from dog to dog through the air. However, the main problem comes where dogs are grouped together e.g. in boarding kennels, at training classes, and dog shows. A vaccine given as drops up the nose is the most effective; this lasts 6-12 months.

The Vaccination Debate

In the March issue of Consumer magazine there was an article on vaccination of pets.

Ponsonby Veterinary Centre's position on the frequency of vaccination. We currently recommend that your pet has an annual health check once a year, with vaccinations every 3 years. Although this varies depending on which diseases we are trying to protect against. There are however situations when you will need to consider vaccinating more frequently. These are:

- If your cat goes into catteries regularly
- Leptospirosis, Kennel Cough (dog) Leukaemia (cat) vaccines

need to be given yearly

- If your cat goes into catteries at peak times, esp. Christmas
- If your cat is over 10 years old, and goes into catteries
- If you use a different cattery to ours

Catteries and kennels have individual requirements so check what these are when you book your pet in.

In May a new cat vaccination is due to be released that contains only the respiratory viruses. This is great news if your cat comes into the above categories, as it will reduce the amount of vaccinations your cat receives. This in turn will reduce the risk of an adverse reaction.

At your pets Annual Health Check we will discuss your pets individual vaccination requirements and tailor them accordingly.

Dog Training

There was this man who had a dog which he was attempting to train, but alas had very little success. He was on the verge of despair when he happened across a very charismatic American evangelist. He unburdened his soul to the American, who promptly informed him to leave the dog with him, and he would have it trained in a jiffy.

The next day the man returns, and asks how the evangelist got on. The reply was positive, and the evangelist calls the dog to give a demonstration. Picking up a stick, he throws it and says, "Fetch." Instantly the dog takes off, grabs the stick and returns. The evangelist says, "Drop" and the dog drops the stick at his feet. "Roll over," and the dog rolls over. By this time the dog's owner is very excited, and asks if he can have a go. "Sure," replies the evangelist. "Heel!" says the owner and the dog lifts one paw, places it on the man's forehead and says, "I command this sickness to leave you..."

"Kael"

Ch Skrownek Sev Kazeel

Kael joins his brother, Ch Skrownek Sev Kazan in holding the title of Best In Speciality Show. Look for more exciting plans for Kael in the near future.

Kael is available at stud to approved hip scored bitches only.

Thank you

Judge Bob Willis, Taz Samoyeds, Australia

Reserve in Show

"Ali"

*Anaky Taking Chance
(Imp Aust)*

Ali exceeded all our expectations by going Reserve Best in Show to her kennel mate at only 10 months old.

Look out for her competing in the Supreme Puppy of the Year to be held later this month.

A young girl with a very bright future.

Dog Quotations

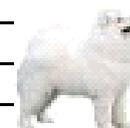

- "The greatness of a nation and its moral progress can be judged by the way its animals are treated." -- Gandhi
- "The dog was created specially for children. He is the god of frolic." -- Henry Ward Beecher
- "A dog teaches a boy fidelity, perseverance, and to turn around three times before lying down." -- Robert Benchley
- "A dog is the only thing on earth that loves you more than he loves himself." -- Billings
- "The great pleasure of a dog is that you may make a fool of yourself with him and not only will he not scold you, but he will make a fool of himself too." -- Samuel Butler
- "Dogs have given us their absolute all. We are the centre of their universe. We are the focus of their love and faith and trust. They serve us in return for scraps. It is without a doubt the best deal man has ever made." -- Roger Caras
- "One dog barks at something, the rest bark at him." -- Chinese Proverb
- "I think we are drawn to dogs because they are the uninhibited creatures we might be if we weren't certain we knew better." -- George Bird Evans, "Troubles with Bird Dogs"
- "My dog is usually pleased with what I do, because she is not infected with the concept of what I "should" be doing." -- Lonzo Idolswine
- "They [dogs] never talk about themselves but listen to you while you talk about yourself, and keep up an appearance of being interested in the conversation." -- Jerome K. Jerome
- "Scratch a dog and you'll find a permanent job." -- Franklin P. Jones
- "I used to look at [my dog] Smokey and think, 'If you were a little smarter you could tell me what you were thinking,' and he'd look at me like he was saying, 'If you were a little smarter, I wouldn't have to.'" -- Fred Jungclaus
- "Dogs are our link to paradise. They don't know evil or jealousy or discontent. To sit with a dog on a hillside on a glorious afternoon is to be back in Eden, where doing nothing was not boring--it was peace." -- Milan Kundera
- "No one appreciates the very special genius of your conversation as the dog does." -- Christopher Morley
- "I wonder what goes through his mind when he sees us peeing in his water bowl." -- Penny Ward Moser
- "No matter how little money and how few possessions you own, having a dog makes you rich." -- Louis Sabin
- "I once decided not to date a guy because he wasn't excited to meet my dog. I mean, this was like not wanting to meet my mother." -- Bonnie Schacter, Founder of the Single Pet Owner's Society Singles Group
- "Acquiring a dog may be the only opportunity a human ever has to choose a relative." -- Mordecai Siegal
- "You think dogs will not be in heaven? I tell you, they will be there long before any of us." -- Robert Louis Stevenson
- "If you pick up a starving dog and make him prosperous, he will not bite you; that is the principal difference between a dog and a man." -- Mark Twain
- "He is your friend, your partner, your defender, your dog. You are his life, his love, his leader. He will be yours, faithful and true, to the last beat of his heart. You owe it to him to be worthy of such devotion." -- Unknown
- "One reason a dog is such a lovable creature is his tail wags instead of his tongue." -- Unknown
- "The one absolutely unselfish friend that man can have in this selfish world, the one that never deserts him, the one that never proves ungrateful or treacherous, is his dog. . . . He will kiss the hand that has no food to offer; he will lick the wounds and sores that come in encounter with the roughness of the world. . . .When all other friends desert, he remains." - George G. Vest
- "My little dog--a heartbeat at my feet." -- Edith Wharton
- "There is no psychiatrist in the world like a puppy licking your face." -- Ben Williams
